5 Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the 6 following:

7 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28A.315
8 RCW to read as follows:

9 Notwithstanding RCW 42.12.010(4), a school director elected from a 10 director district may continue to serve as a director from the district
11 even though the director no longer resides in the director district,
12 but continues to reside in the school district, under the following
13 conditions:

14 (1) If, as a result of redrawing the director district boundaries,
15 the director no longer resides in the director district, the director
16 shall retain his or her position for the remainder of his or her term 17 of office; and

18 (2) If, as a result of the director changing his or her place of 19 residence the director no longer resides in the director district, the 20 director shall retain his or her position until a successor is elected
21 and assumes office as follows: (a) If the change in residency occurs
22 after the opening of the regular filing period provided under RCW
23 29.15.020, in the year two years after the director was elected to 24 office, the director shall remain in office for the remainder of his or 25 her term of office; or (b) if the change in residency occurs prior to 26 the opening of the regular filing period provided under RCW 29.15.020, 27 in the year two years after the director was elected to office, the 28 director shall remain in office until a successor assumes office who 29 has been elected to serve the remainder of the unexpired term of office
30 at the school district general election held in that year."

31 Correct the title.

EFFECT: School directors from director districts may move outside the director district but inside the school district and retain their offices for a time under three circumstances.

School directors from director districts may remain in office for the remainder of their terms if, as a result of redistricting, their residences are placed outside the director districts.

School directors from director districts who move into another residence in the school district may remain in office subject to two conditions.

(1) School directors who move after the filing date for the upcoming regular election may serve out the remainder of their terms.

(2) School directors who move before the filing date for the next regular election may serve until their successor is elected and assumes office.
