Background:

The Secretary of State is the chief elections officer of the state and is authorized to adopt rules relating to election matters that implement state statutes.

County auditors are the local election officials who conduct elections throughout their counties.

Summary of Substitute Bill:

Each county auditor is required to develop written election procedures for their county, and copies of the procedures must be available on the Internet. The Secretary of State assists in preparation of these procedures by providing model written procedures.

Numerous matters are required to be described in the county's procedure manual, including:

- A discussion of different types of ballots and how they are processed and tabulated;
- The electronic vote tallying system used by the county;
- How a voter's registration may be challenged;
- How votes are canvassed and certified by the county canvassing board;
- The procedures for write-in voting and the tallying of write-in votes;
- When and how a true duplicate copy of a ballot is made;
- The procedure for the appointment of observers by major political parties;
- The procedure for appeals to a canvassing board; and
- The process for recounting votes.

Substitute Bill Compared to Original Bill: The requirement for developing an election procedures manual is changed to developing written election procedures that must be available on the Internet. Physical copies of the procedures may be made available to the public at cost.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date of Substitute Bill: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: (Original Bill) This bill is a repeat of last year that passed the House. Voters currently challenge the voting process, and this bill would require counties to develop a procedure manual. This would safeguard counties from lawsuits. This also promotes consistency of elections among counties.

Testimony Against: (Original Bill) The bill doesn't go far enough. The manual should include a voters pamphlet, a video voters guide, and should fix ballot placement. In the 1997 City of Tacoma elections, the county auditor did not print candidate statements.

Testified: (In favor) Representative Dave Schmidt, prime sponsor; and Bob Terwilliger and Suzanne Sinclair, Washington State Auditors Association.

(Opposed) Will Baker, citizen.
