HOUSE COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS

Background: The state Constitution prohibits the state from being "interested in the stock of any company, association, or corporation." This provision limits state investments to fixed-income securities such as government and corporate bonds and certificates of deposits. However, the constitution exempts certain funds, such as pension and industrial insurance funds, from this restriction.

Summary of Bill: At the next general election, an amendment to the State Constitution will be presented to the voters to add funds held in trust for the benefit of persons with developmental disabilities to the list of public funds exempt from current constitutional investment restrictions. This permits the Developmental Disabilities Endowment Trust Fund to be invested as authorized by law.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: Goals of investment growth and income can be better realized for the Developmental Disabilities Endowment Trust Fund by removing constitutional investment restrictions.
