HOUSE BILL 1195

State of Washington

56th Legislature

1999 Regular Session

By Representatives Constantine, Sheahan, Dickerson, Hankins, Lantz, Romero, Ballasiotes, Hurst, Kessler, Radcliff, Carlson, Tokuda, Cody, Kenney, Ogden, Wood, Lovick, Edmonds, McIntire, Conway, Rockefeller, Poulsen and Keiser

Read first time 01/18/1999. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

1 AN ACT Relating to communications between victims of domestic 2 violence and victims' advocates; and amending RCW 5.60.060.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 5.60.060 and 1998 c 72 s 1 are each amended to read as 5 follows:

6 (1) A husband shall not be examined for or against his wife,
7 without the consent of the wife, nor a wife for or against her husband 8 without the consent of the husband; nor can either during marriage or 9 afterward, be without the consent of the other, examined as to any 10 communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this 11 exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one 12 against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime 13 committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or 14 proceeding against a spouse if the marriage occurred subsequent to the 15 filing of formal charges against the defendant, nor to a criminal 16 action or proceeding for a crime committed by said husband or wife 17 against any child of whom said husband or wife is the parent or 18 guardian, nor to a proceeding under chapter 70.96A or 71.05 RCW:
19 PROVIDED, That the spouse of a person sought to be detained under

1 chapter 70.96A or 71.05 RCW may not be compelled to testify and shall 2 be so informed by the court prior to being called as a witness.

3 (2)(a) An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of 4 his or her client, be examined as to any communication made by the 5 client to him or her, or his or her advice given thereon in the course 6 of professional employment.

7 (b) A parent or guardian of a minor child arrested on a criminal 8 charge may not be examined as to a communication between the child and 9 his or her attorney if the communication was made in the presence of 10 the parent or guardian. This privilege does not extend to 11 communications made prior to the arrest.

12 (3) A member of the clergy or a priest shall not, without the 13 consent of a person making the confession, be examined as to any 14 confession made to him or her in his or her professional character, in 15 the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he or she 16 belongs.

17 (4) Subject to the limitations under RCW 70.96A.140 or 71.05.250, 18 a physician or surgeon or osteopathic physician or surgeon or pediatric 19 physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his or her 20 patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired 21 in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him or her to 22 prescribe or act for the patient, except as follows:

23 (a) In any judicial proceedings regarding a child's injury, 24 neglect, or sexual abuse or the cause thereof; and

25 (b) Ninety days after filing an action for personal injuries or 26 wrongful death, the claimant shall be deemed to waive the physician-27 patient privilege. Waiver of the physician-patient privilege for any 28 one physician or condition constitutes a waiver of the privilege as to 29 all physicians or conditions, subject to such limitations as a court 30 may impose pursuant to court rules.

31 (5) A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to 32 communications made to him or her in official confidence, when the 33 public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

34 (6)(a) A peer support group counselor shall not, without consent of 35 the law enforcement officer making the communication, be compelled to 36 testify about any communication made to the counselor by the officer 37 while receiving counseling. The counselor must be designated as such 38 by the sheriff, police chief, or chief of the Washington state patrol, 39 prior to the incident that results in counseling. The privilege only

1 applies when the communication was made to the counselor while acting 2 in his or her capacity as a peer support group counselor. The 3 privilege does not apply if the counselor was an initial responding 4 officer, a witness, or a party to the incident which prompted the 5 delivery of peer support group counseling services to the law
6 enforcement officer.

7 (b) For purposes of this section, "peer support group counselor"
8 means a:

9 (i) Law enforcement officer, or civilian employee of a law
10 enforcement agency, who has received training to provide emotional and 11 moral support and counseling to an officer who needs those services as 12 a result of an incident in which the officer was involved while acting 13 in his or her official capacity; or

14 (ii) Nonemployee counselor who has been designated by the sheriff, 15 police chief, or chief of the Washington state patrol to provide 16 emotional and moral support and counseling to an officer who needs 17 those services as a result of an incident in which the officer was 18 involved while acting in his or her official capacity.

19 (7) A sexual assault advocate may not, without the consent of the 20 victim, be examined as to any communication made by the victim to the 21 sexual assault advocate.

22 (a) For purposes of this section, "sexual assault advocate" means 23 the employee or volunteer from a rape crisis center, victim assistance 24 unit, program, or association, that provides information, medical or 25 legal advocacy, counseling, or support to victims of sexual assault, 26 who is designated by the victim to accompany the victim to the hospital 27 or other health care facility and to proceedings concerning the alleged 28 assault, including police and prosecution interviews and court
29 proceedings.

30 (b) A sexual assault advocate may disclose a confidential
31 communication without the consent of the victim if failure to disclose
32 is likely to result in a clear, imminent risk of serious physical 33 injury or death of the victim or another person. Any sexual assault 34 advocate participating in good faith in the disclosing of records and 35 communications under this section shall have immunity from any 36 liability, civil, criminal, or otherwise, that might result from the 37 action. In any proceeding, civil or criminal, arising out of a 38 disclosure under this section, the good faith of the sexual assault

1 advocate who disclosed the confidential communication shall be 2 presumed.

3 (8) A domestic violence victim advocate may not, without the 4 consent of the victim, be examined as to any communication made by the 5 victim to the domestic violence victim advocate.

6 (a) For purposes of this section, "domestic violence victim 7 advocate" means the employee or volunteer from a community-based 8 domestic violence victims' services program, shelter, or association, 9 or human services agency, that provides information, medical or legal 10 advocacy, counseling, or support to victims of domestic violence.

11 (b) A domestic violence victim advocate may disclose a confidential
12 communication without the consent of the victim if failure to disclose
13 is likely to result in a clear, imminent risk of serious physical 14 injury or death of the victim or another person. Any domestic violence 15 victim advocate participating in good faith in the disclosing of 16 records and communications under this section shall have immunity from 17 any liability, civil, criminal, or otherwise, that might result from 18 the action. In any proceeding, civil or criminal, arising out of a 19 disclosure under this section, the good faith of the domestic violence 20 victim advocate who disclosed the confidential communication shall be 21 presumed.
