

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 99-4638, by Representatives Mitchell, Sump, Radcliff, Ballasiotes, Hankins, Skinner, Conway and Talcott

WHEREAS, The Revised Code of Washington is a great educational tool for our public schools; and

WHEREAS, Many public schools cannot afford to purchase the Revised Code of Washington for educational use by its students; and

WHEREAS, The Statute Law Committee loans sets of the Revised Code of Washington for use by the house and senate committees of the legislature each biennium and provides each member of the legislature a set of the official code during his or her term of office;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the House of Representatives of the state of Washington, That the Co-Chief Clerks of the House of Representatives shall collect surplus volumes of the Revised Code of Washington from house committees each biennium and provide for special procedures to donate the surplus volumes to public schools; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That members of the House of Representatives may determine whether their surplus volumes of the Revised Code of Washington shall be donated following the special procedures established by the Co-Chief Clerks of the House of Representatives or select the public school to which the surplus volumes of the Revised Code of Washington will be donated.

I hereby certify this to be a true and correct copy of Resolution 4638 adopted by the House of Representatives
March 10, 1999.

Timothy A. Martin, Co-Chief Clerk
