

SENATE RESOLUTION
1999-8622

By Senators Rasmussen, Honeyford, Spanel, Loveland, B. Sheldon, Sheahan, Fraser and Johnson

WHEREAS, The economy of the state of Washington is comprised of diverse activities engaged in by people of varying interests and talents from all walks of life; and

WHEREAS, Vocational education is vital to the success of our state as an economic leader; and

WHEREAS, Vocational education is not relegated solely to the higher education system, but begins in Washington's secondary schools; and

WHEREAS, High school vocational education in Washington is ably represented by vocational student organizations; and

WHEREAS, Vocational student organizations are comprised of VICA (Vocational Industrial Clubs of America), FFA, FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America), FHA-HERO (Future Homemakers of America), and DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America); and

WHEREAS, These organization represent more than 27,000 students from all corners of our state; and

WHEREAS, Through their involvement in their vocational activities, these students are learning skills not necessarily available to them in the conventional classroom setting; and

WHEREAS, They are training to become better workers, better leaders, better problem-solvers and decision-makers; as well as better citizens; and

WHEREAS, Their activities are supported by true public/private partnerships that allow private enterprise to become more fully involved with public schools in shaping the future of our economy and its entrepreneurs and workforce; and

WHEREAS, These active, forward-thinking, and creative young people are blazing the trail into the future for our state; and

WHEREAS, Their initiative and leadership today will no doubt inspire many others tomorrow and in the years ahead; and

WHEREAS, Their example of personal responsibility and of creating opportunity is one that all citizens would do well to emulate;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the Senate of the state of Washington do hereby recognize and honor the hard work and dedication of the state officers of VICA, DECA, FHA, FFA, and FBLA here present and the more than 27,000 members they represent, as well as vocational student organizations and its chairperson. Charlotte Crimmins, who is also the state director of VICA, and thank them for all their efforts on behalf of themselves and their future, as well as the future of the great State of Washington; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate do hereby immediately transmit copies of this resolution to each of the aforementioned organizations.

I, Tony M. Cook, Secretary of the Senate, do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of Senate Resolution 1999-8622, adopted by the Senate February 24, 1999.

TONY M. COOK
Secretary of the Senate