

SENATE RESOLUTION
1999-8638

By Senators Rasmussen, Spanel, Honeyford, Fraser and B. Sheldon

WHEREAS, The 4-H Youth Development Program has helped young people in Washington develop useful life skills— since it was established in 1914; and

WHEREAS, The program centers on teaching young people to become productive members of society by fostering self-esteem, and communication and decision-making skills; and

WHEREAS, 80,000 young people throughout Washington participated in 4-H Youth Development Programs in 1998; and

WHEREAS, These programs help participants learn about a wide variety of subjects including science, family living and applied arts; and

WHEREAS, In addition to working with traditional community clubs, the programs reach youth through urban groups, special interest groups, nutrition programs, school enrichment, camping, and interagency learning experiences; and

WHEREAS, the 4-H Youth Development Program promotes volunteer service by enlisting more than 9,000 volunteers statewide, who donate an average two hundred hours of their time during the year; and

WHEREAS, In 1998, the program achieved its goal of reaching a more diverse audience as twenty percent of participants came from ethnic minority groups; and

WHEREAS, More than three hundred 4-H members from around the state are currently visiting the State Capitol as part of a statewide education program titled 4-H Know Your Government—;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the Washington State Senate recognize the 4-H Youth Development Project for its many contributions to the youth of Washington and the betterment of our communities; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Carol Beckman, the State Program Coordinator for the 4-H Youth Development Program.

I, Tony M. Cook, Secretary of the Senate, do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of Senate Resolution 1999-8638, adopted by the Senate March 9, 1999.
