

SENATE RESOLUTION
2000-8750

By Senators Hochstatter, Sheldon, T., Morton, Wojahn, Swecker, Goings, Bauer, Oke, Rasmussen, Snyder and Jacobsen

WHEREAS, Ed McLeary began his first fish farm in 1945 at the spring-fed headwaters of Rocky Ford Creek near Soap Lake, Washington; and

WHEREAS, Troutlodge, Inc., founded by Ed and his wife, Lois, is the world's largest producer of live rainbow trout eggs, with over 350 million eggs shipped to many states and over 30 foreign countries; and

WHEREAS, Troutlodge has established itself as a renowned salmonid breeding specialist; and

WHEREAS, Since the mid-1970's, Ed, his two sons, Randy and Russell, and daughter, Janis, have successfully operated the expansion of the business into international markets; and

WHEREAS, Through their process of selection, new strains, temperature control, photo adaptation and more than forty years of concentration, Ed and his family have been able to constantly supply live rainbow trout eggs throughout the year; and

WHEREAS, This constant supply helped expand world trout production by more than doubling the amount of trout produced; and

WHEREAS, Ed has been recognized as an industry leader from the very beginning; and

WHEREAS, Ed McLeary recognized how important political activity was to the industry and worked to gain the Internal Revenue Service's recognition of fish farming as an agricultural pursuit; and

WHEREAS, In 1995, he received the United States Trout Farmers Association Distinguished White Award; and

WHEREAS, The United States Fish and Wildlife Service's National Fish Culture Hall of Fame has been established to recognize those persons who have made significant contributions to the advancement of fish culture in the United States; and

WHEREAS, In May of this year, Ed will be inducted into the National Fish Culture Hall of Fame by unanimous consent of the American Fisheries Society Fish Culture Section membership;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate salute, commend, and honor Ed McLeary for his induction into the National Fish Culture Hall of Fame and for his lifetime contributions to the aquaculture industry in Washington State, and for his entrepreneurial spirit that has led to the McLeary family reputation as the world-renowned producers and breeding specialists of rainbow trout and salmon; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Ed McLeary and the entire McLeary family, the personnel of Troutlodge, and the American fish farming industry.

I, Tony M. Cook, Secretary of the Senate, do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of Senate Resolution 2000-8750, adopted by the Senate March 6, 2000.

TONY M. COOK
