

1162

Sponsor(s): Representative Barlean

Brief Title: Providing liquidated damages for killing a domestic animal.

HB 1162 - DIGEST

Provides that a person who kills a domestic animal belonging to another person without the owner's permission or other legal justification is liable for damages in a minimum amount of one thousand five hundred dollars plus reasonable attorneys' fees as granted by the court.