

1443

Sponsor(s): Representative Barlean

Brief Title: Changing civil penalties in an action for the killing of a domestic animal.

HB 1443 - DIGEST

Provides that, in any civil action for the killing of a domestic animal, a successful plaintiff is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs. In addition, the court may impose on any liable party a civil penalty of no more than twenty-five hundred dollars to be paid to the plaintiff.