Brief Title: Providing special training for those who interview child witnesses and victims.

HB 1692-S2 - DIGEST

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 3/12/99)

Provides that investigative interviewers shall receive introductory and ongoing specialized training in interviewing children. Specialized training shall be prioritized for persons primarily responsible for investigating child sexual abuse.

Directs the commission, the department of social and health services, and the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys to design and implement state-wide training that contains consistent elements for persons engaged in the interviewing of children, including law enforcement, prosecution, and child protective services.

Directs the department to establish three pilot projects involving child sexual abuse and neglect investigations. The projects shall use different methods and techniques to conduct and preserve interviews with alleged child victims of sexual abuse and neglect.

Provides that the act shall be null and void if appropriations are not approved.
