

1953

Sponsor(s): Representatives Quall, Carlson, Gombosky, Kenney and Santos

Brief Description: Authorizing state reimbursement for more than nineteen or twenty hours for work-study students.

HB 1953 - DIGEST

Declares an intent to resolve the conflicting requirements of welfare reform to work at least twenty hours per week with the prohibition against working more than nineteen hours per week under the state work-study financial aid program.