

2010

Sponsor(s): Representatives Ogden, McMorris and Romero; by request of Department of Community, Trade, and Economic Development

Brief Title: Changing provisions relating to historic cemeteries.

HB 2010 - DIGEST

(DIGEST AS ENACTED)

Provides that persons disturbing historic graves through inadvertence, including disturbance through construction, shall reinter the human remains under the supervision of the office of archaeology and historic preservation. Expenses to reinter such human remains are to be provided by the office of archaeology and historic preservation to the extent that funds for this purpose are appropriated by the legislature.