

2012

Sponsor(s): Representatives Kessler, Anderson, Regala, Doumit, Barlean, Dunshee, Cooper, Fisher, Rockefeller, O'Brien, Kenney, Lantz, Keiser, Murray, Constantine and Kagi

Brief Title: Changing the description of waters from which oil tanker passage is prohibited.

HB 2012 - DIGEST

Provides that any oil tanker, whether enrolled or registered, of greater than one hundred and twenty-five thousand deadweight tons shall be prohibited from proceeding beyond a point, within United States waters, east of a line extending from Bonilla Point light on Vancouver Island to Tatoosh Island light.