Brief Title: Changing the alternative learning experience program.

HB 2190 - DIGEST

Declares that an alternative learning experience parent partnership program may be counted as a course of study. An alternative learning experience parent partnership program is an individualized course of study for a student who is not homeschooled under RCW 28A.255.010(4), a private school student under RCW 28A.255.010(1)(a), or an adult education student.
