

3025

Sponsor(s): Representatives Mitchell, Fisher and Radcliff

Brief Description: Encouraging a programmatic approach to natural resource regulation.

HB 3025 - DIGEST

Recognizes that use of programmatic approaches to natural resource regulation benefits agencies and applicants by permit streamlining and improves environmental resource protection by allowing staff and resources to focus on coordinating complex issues rather than routine documentation.

Encourages the development of programmatic approaches and general permitting with state and federal agencies.