Brief Description: Authorizing temporary adjustments of child support.

SB 5206 - DIGEST

Provides that an order of child support may be temporarily adjusted at any time upon a showing that the responsible parent is:
(1) Participating in a substance abuse treatment program that precludes employment;

(2) incarcerated;

(3) participating in a strike at the workplace at which the individual is employed;

(4) locked out by his or her employer at the workplace at which the individual is employed; or

(5) involuntarily unemployed for reasons other than misconduct at the workplace. Either party may initiate the temporary adjustment by filing a motion and child support worksheets.
