

5368

Sponsor(s): Senators Haugen, Stevens and Jacobsen

Brief Description: Eliminating head-on collisions on the most dangerous highways.

SB 5368 - DIGEST

Provides that, to eliminate head-on collisions on the high-risk sections of highways in Washington state, the department of transportation shall install concrete barriers as accident deterrents.

Declares that exceptions to this requirement are: (1) Multilane highways that already have natural medians in place; and (2) the low-risk sections of these highways.