Brief Description: Allowing domestic wineries to exercise licensing privileges at up to two additional locations.

SB 6589-S - DIGEST

(DIGEST AS ENACTED)

Provides that a domestic winery licensed under RCW 66.24.170, at locations separate from any of its production or manufacturing sites, may serve samples of its own products, with or without charge, and sell wine of its own production at retail for off-premise consumption, provided that: (1) Each additional location has been approved by the board under RCW 66.24.010;

(2) the total number of additional locations does not exceed two; and

(3) a winery may not act as a distributor at any such additional location.
