8 June 1, 2003.

9 Sec. 6. RCW 44.28.091 and 1996 c 288 s 14 are each amended to read
10 as follows:

11 (1) No later than nine months after the final performance audit has 12 been transmitted by the joint committee to the appropriate standing
13 committees of the house of representatives and the senate, the ~~((joint~~ 14 ~~committee in consultation with the standing committees may))~~ agency or 15 local government shall produce a preliminary compliance report on ((the 16 agency's or local government's)) its compliance with the final
17 performance audit recommendations and submit it to the joint committee.
18 ~~((The agency or local government may attach its comments to the joint~~ 19 ~~committee's preliminary compliance report as a separate addendum.))~~ At 20 the request of the joint committee, the agency or local government
21 shall periodically provide updates to the preliminary compliance report
22 until the joint committee determines that the agency or local
23 government has complied with the final performance audit
24 recommendations to the joint committee's satisfaction.

25 (2) ~~((Within three months after the issuance of the preliminary~~ 26 ~~compliance report,))~~ The joint committee may hold ((at least one)) 27 public hearings and receive public testimony ((regarding the findings
28 and recommendations contained in the preliminary compliance report.
29 The joint committee may waive the public hearing requirement if the 30 preliminary compliance report demonstrates that the agency or local 31 government is in compliance with the audit recommendations)) if the 32 agency or local government is not making satisfactory progress in 33 achieving compliance. The joint committee shall issue any final 34 compliance report ~~((within four weeks after the public hearing or~~ 35 ~~hearings))~~ after an agency or local government has satisfactorily

1 complied with the final audit recommendations. The legislative auditor
2 shall transmit the final compliance report in the same manner as a
3 final performance audit is transmitted under RCW 44.28.088."
