State of Washington

57th Legislature

2001 Regular Session

By Representatives Conway, Kenney, Delvin, Miloscia, Hunt, Fromhold, Kagi and O'Brien

Read first time 02/05/2001. Referred to Committee on Commerce & Labor.

1 AN ACT Relating to labor relations in institutions of higher 2 education; adding a new chapter to Title 41 RCW; and providing an 3 effective date.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the purpose of this chapter to promote 6 cooperative efforts between employees and the boards of regents or 7 boards of trustees of the four-year institutions of higher education in 8 the state of Washington by prescribing certain rights and obligations 9 of the employees and by establishing orderly procedures governing the 10 relationship between the employees and their employers which procedures 11 are designed to meet the special requirements and needs of public 12 employment in higher education.

13 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires 14 otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this 15 chapter.

16 (1) "Collective bargaining" and "bargaining" means the performance 17 of the mutual obligation of the representatives of the employer and the 18 exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times to

1 bargain in good faith, subject to section 9 of this act, in an effort 2 to reach agreement with respect to wages, hours, and other terms and 3 conditions of employment.

4 (2) "Commission" means the public employment relations commission 5 established under RCW 41.58.010.

6 (3) "Confidential employee" means: (a) A person who participates 7 directly on behalf of an employer in the formulation of labor relations 8 policy, the preparation for or conduct of collective bargaining, or the 9 administration of collective bargaining agreements, if the role of the 10 person is not merely routine or clerical in nature but calls for the 11 consistent exercise of independent judgment; and (b) a person who 12 assists and acts in a confidential capacity to a person in (a) of this 13 subsection.

14 (4) "Employee" means any full or regular part-time faculty member, 15 not including the chief executive or administrative officers of the 16 institution of higher education, confidential employees, supervisors, 17 and employees subject to chapter 41.06 or 41.56 RCW.

18 (5) "Employee organization" means any organization, union, 19 association, agency, committee, council, or group of any kind in which 20 employees participate and that exists for the purpose, in whole or in 21 part, of collective bargaining with employers.

22 (6) "Employer" means the board of regents or board of trustees of 23 each institution of higher education and includes any officer, board, 24 commission, council, or other person or body acting on behalf of an 25 employer.

26 (7) "Exclusive bargaining representative" means any employee 27 organization that has been certified or recognized under this chapter 28 as the representative of the employees in an appropriate collective 29 bargaining unit.

30 (8) "Institution of higher education" means the regional 31 universities as defined under RCW 28B.15.005 and The Evergreen State 32 College.

33 (9) "Person" means one or more individuals, labor organizations, 34 partnerships, associations, corporations, employers, or legal 35 representatives.

36 (10) "Shared governance" means a traditional process whereby a 37 faculty senate or faculty committee deals with curriculum and academic 38 matters.

1 (11) "Supervisor" means any employee having authority, in the 2 interest of an employer, to hire, assign, promote, transfer, lay off, 3 recall, suspend, discipline, or discharge peers, or to recommend 4 effectively such action, if the exercise of the authority is not merely 5 routine or clerical in nature but calls for the consistent exercise of 6 independent judgment. An employee is not includable as a supervisor 7 solely by reason of his or her membership on a faculty tenure or other 8 governance committee or body or because of being a department chair or 9 head. The term "supervisor" includes only those persons who perform a 10 preponderance of the acts of authority specified in this subsection.

11 (12) "Unfair labor practice" means an unfair labor practice listed 12 in section 11 of this act.

13 (13) "Union security provision" means a provision in a collective 14 bargaining agreement under which some or all employees in the 15 bargaining unit may be required, as a condition of continued employment 16 on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such 17 employment or the effective date of the provision, whichever is later, 18 to become a member of the exclusive bargaining representative or pay an 19 agency fee established by the exclusive bargaining representative at an 20 amount not greater than the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly 21 required as condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the 22 exclusive bargaining representative.

23 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The boards of regents and boards of trustees 24 of the institutions of higher education as defined in section 2 of this 25 act may engage in collective bargaining with the exclusive bargaining 26 representatives of their employees, as provided in this chapter.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Employees have the right to self-28 organization, to form, join, or assist employee organizations, to 29 bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and 30 also have the right to refrain from any or all of these activities 31 except to the extent that employees may be required to make payments to 32 an exclusive bargaining representative or charitable organization under 33 a union security provision authorized in this chapter.

34 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Upon the voluntary written authorization 35 of a bargaining unit employee, the employer shall deduct from the pay 36 of the employee the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly

1 required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the 2 exclusive bargaining representative. The employee authorization may be 3 irrevocable for up to one year. Such dues and fees shall be 4 transmitted monthly by the employer to the exclusive bargaining
5 representative or to the depository designated by the exclusive
6 bargaining representative.

7 (2) A collective bargaining agreement may include union security 8 provisions, but not a closed shop. The employer shall enforce any 9 union security provision by monthly deductions from the pay of all 10 bargaining unit employees affected by the collective bargaining 11 agreement and shall transmit the funds to the exclusive bargaining
12 representative or to the depository designated by the exclusive
13 bargaining representative.

14 (3) An employee who is covered by a union security provision and 15 who asserts a right of nonassociation based on bona fide religious 16 tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which the employee 17 is a member shall, as a condition of employment, make alternative 18 payments to a nonreligious charity designated by agreement of the 19 employee and the exclusive bargaining representative. The amount of 20 the alternative payment shall be equal to the periodic dues and 21 initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or 22 retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative. The 23 employee shall furnish written proof that the payments have been made.
24 If the employee and the exclusive bargaining representative do not 25 reach agreement on the matter, the dispute shall be submitted to the 26 commission for determination.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In any dispute concerning the unit 28 appropriate for collective bargaining or the allocation of employees or 29 positions to bargaining units, the commission, after a hearing or 30 hearings, shall determine the dispute, taking into consideration the 31 duties, skills, and working conditions of the employees, the extent of 32 organization among the employees, the community of interest among the 33 employees, the desire of the employees, and the overall management 34 structure of the employer including the interrelationships of divisions 35 within the institution. A faculty bargaining unit consists of all 36 full-time and regular part-time faculty. Unnecessary fragmentation 37 shall be avoided.

1        NEW SECTION.    Sec. 7. (1) The employee organization that has been 2 designated by the majority of the employees in an appropriate 3 bargaining unit as their representative for the purposes of collective 4 bargaining shall be the exclusive bargaining representative of, and 5 shall be required to represent, all the employees within the bargaining 6 unit without regard to membership in that employee organization:
7 PROVIDED, That any employee may at any time present his or her 8 complaints or concerns to the employer and have such complaints or 9 concerns adjusted without intervention of the exclusive bargaining 10 representative, as long as the exclusive bargaining representative has 11 been given an opportunity to be present at that adjustment and to make 12 its views known, and as long as the adjustment is not inconsistent with 13 the terms of a collective bargaining agreement then in effect.

14        (2) The commission shall resolve any dispute concerning selection 15 of a bargaining representative in accordance with the procedures 16 specified in this section.

17        (a) No question concerning representation may be raised within one 18 year following a certification or attempted certification.

19        (b) No question concerning representation may be raised within one 20 year following an election or cross-check in which the employees failed 21 to designate an exclusive bargaining representative.

22        (c) If there is a valid collective bargaining agreement in effect, 23 no question concerning representation may be raised except during the 24 period not more than ninety nor less than sixty days before the 25 expiration date of the agreement. If a valid collective bargaining 26 agreement, together with any renewals or extensions thereof, has been 27 or will be in existence for more than three years, then a question 28 concerning representation may be raised not more than ninety nor less 29 than sixty days before the third anniversary date or any subsequent 30 anniversary date of the agreement; if the exclusive bargaining 31 representative is removed as the result of the procedure, the 32 collective bargaining agreement shall be deemed to be terminated as of 33 the date of the certification or the anniversary date following the 34 filing of the petition, whichever is later.

35        (d) An employee organization seeking certification as exclusive 36 bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of employees, or 37 bargaining unit employees seeking decertification of an exclusive 38 bargaining representative, shall make a confidential showing to the 39 commission of credible evidence demonstrating that at least thirty

1 percent of the employees in the bargaining unit are in support of the 2 petition. The petition shall indicate the name, address, and telephone 3 number of any employee organization known to claim an interest in the 4 bargaining unit.

5 (e) A petition filed by an employer shall be supported by credible 6 evidence demonstrating the basis on which the employer claims the 7 existence of a question concerning the representation of its employees.

8 (f) Any employee organization that makes a confidential showing to 9 the commission of credible evidence demonstrating that it has the 10 support of at least ten percent of the employees in the bargaining unit 11 involved may intervene in proceedings under this section and have its 12 name listed as a choice on the ballot in an election conducted by the 13 commission.

14 (g) The commission shall determine any question concerning 15 representation by conducting a secret ballot election among the 16 employees in the bargaining unit. However, if the commission 17 determines that a serious unfair labor practice has been committed 18 that interfered with the election process and precludes the holding of 19 a fair election, the commission may determine the question concerning 20 representation by conducting a cross-check comparing the employee 21 organization's membership records or bargaining authorization cards 22 against the employment records of the employer.

23 (h) The representation election ballot shall contain a choice for 24 each employee organization qualifying under (d) or (f) of this 25 subsection, together with a choice for no representation. The 26 representation election shall be determined by the majority of the 27 valid ballots cast. If there are three or more choices on the ballot 28 and none of the choices receives a majority of the valid ballots cast, 29 a run-off election shall be conducted between the two choices receiving 30 the highest and second highest numbers of votes.

31 (i) Representation that exists on the effective date of this 32 section shall not be disturbed.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In determining whether a person is acting as 34 an agent of another person so as to make such other person responsible 35 for his or her acts, the question of whether the specific acts 36 performed were actually authorized or subsequently ratified shall not 37 be controlling.

1        NEW SECTION.    Sec. 9.    (1) The commission shall broadly construe 2 the scope of bargaining.

3        (2) Services and activities fees as defined in RCW 28B.15.041 shall 4 not be a subject for bargaining.

5        (3) A written contract incorporating any agreements reached shall 6 be executed if requested by either party.

7        (4) The obligation to bargain does not compel either party to agree 8 to a proposal or to make a concession.

9        (5) In the event of a dispute between an employer and an exclusive 10 bargaining representative over the matters that are terms and 11 conditions of employment, the commission shall decide which items are 12 mandatory subjects for bargaining.

13        NEW SECTION.    Sec. 10.    (1) The commission shall adopt rules as 14 necessary and appropriate to administer this chapter, consistent with 15 the best standards of labor-management relations.

16        (2) The rules, precedents, and practices of the national labor 17 relations board, if consistent with this chapter, shall be considered 18 by the commission in its interpretation of this chapter, and before the 19 adoption of any commission rules.

20        NEW SECTION.    Sec. 11.    (1) It is an unfair labor practice for an 21 employer:

22        (a) To interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the 23 exercise of the rights guaranteed by this chapter;

24        (b) To dominate or interfere with the formation or administration 25 of any employee organization or contribute financial or other support 26 to it. An employer may permit employees to confer with it or its 27 representatives or agents during working hours without loss of time or 28 pay;

29        (c) To encourage or discourage membership in any employee 30 organization by discrimination in regard to hire, tenure of employment, 31 or any term or condition of employment, but this subsection does not 32 prevent an employer from requiring, as a condition of continued
33 employment, payment of the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly 34 required to an exclusive bargaining representative under section 5 of 35 this act;

1 (d) To discharge or discriminate otherwise against an employee
2 because the employee has filed charges or given testimony under this 3 chapter;

4 (e) To refuse to bargain collectively with the exclusive bargaining 5 representative of its employees; or

6 (f) To unilaterally alter or abolish the shared governance system.

7 (2) It is an unfair labor practice for an employee organization or 8 its agents:

9 (a) To restrain or coerce: (i) Employees in the exercise of the 10 rights guaranteed in section 4 of this act, but this does not impair 11 the right of an employee organization to prescribe its own rules for 12 the acquisition or retention of membership in the organization; or (ii) 13 an employer in the selection of its representatives for the purposes of 14 collective bargaining or the adjustment of grievances;

15 (b) To cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate
16 against an employee in violation of subsection (1)(c) of this section 17 or to discriminate against an employee with respect to whom membership 18 in such organization has been denied or terminated on some ground other 19 than the failure of the employee to tender the periodic dues and 20 initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or 21 retaining membership;

22 (c) To discriminate against an employee because that employee has 23 filed charges or given testimony under this chapter; or

24 (d) To refuse to bargain collectively with the employer of 25 employees for whom it is the exclusive bargaining representative.

26 (3) The expression of any views, argument, or opinion, or the 27 dissemination of those views, argument, or opinion to the public, 28 whether in written, printed, graphic, or visual form, shall not 29 constitute or be evidence of an unfair labor practice under this 30 chapter, if the expression contains no threat of reprisal or force or 31 promise of benefit.

32 NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The commission may prevent any person 33 from engaging in any unfair labor practice. This power shall not be 34 affected by any other means of adjustment or prevention that has been 35 or may be established by agreement, law, equity, or otherwise.

36 (2) A complaint charging unfair labor practices shall be filed 37 within six months following the act or event complained of or discovery 38 of such act or event complained of, whichever is later.

1 (3) The person or persons named as respondent in a complaint 2 charging unfair labor practices may file an answer to the complaint and 3 appear in person or otherwise give testimony at the place and time set 4 by the commission for hearing.

5 (4) If the commission determines that a person has engaged in or is 6 engaging in any unfair labor practice, then the commission shall issue 7 and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring the person to 8 cease and desist from the unfair labor practice and to take such 9 affirmative action as will effectuate the purposes and policy of this 10 chapter, including the reinstatement of employees with back pay.

11 (5) The commission may petition the superior court of the county in 12 which the main office of the employer is located or where the person 13 who has engaged or is engaging in the unfair labor practice resides or 14 transacts business, for the enforcement of its order and for 15 appropriate temporary relief.

16 NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of any collective 17 bargaining agreement between the employer and the exclusive bargaining 18 representative requires legislative implementation or an appropriation, 19 the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative shall seek the 20 appropriate legislative action actively and in good faith.

21 NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Whenever a collective bargaining agreement 22 between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative is 23 concluded after the termination date of the previous collective 24 bargaining agreement between the employer and an employee organization 25 representing the same employees, the effective date of the collective 26 bargaining agreement may be the day after the termination date of the 27 previous collective bargaining agreement, and all benefits included in 28 the new collective bargaining agreement, including wage or salary 29 increases, may accrue beginning with the effective date as established 30 by this subsection.

31 NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The commission, through the executive 32 director, may offer its mediation services in any labor dispute 33 involving an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative, 34 either upon its own motion or upon the request of one or more of the 35 parties to the dispute, if in its judgment the dispute threatens to 36 cause a substantial disruption to the public welfare.

1 (2) A person designated as a mediator in a labor dispute under this 2 section shall meet with the representatives of the parties, either 3 jointly or separately, and shall take other steps as he or she deems 4 appropriate to persuade the parties to resolve their differences. A 5 mediator does not have power of compulsion.

6 The services of the mediator, including any per diem expenses,
7 shall be provided by the commission without cost to the parties. This 8 section shall not be construed to prohibit an employer and an exclusive 9 bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute at their own 10 expense some other mediator or mediation procedure.

11 NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. An employer and an exclusive bargaining 12 representative who enter into a collective bargaining agreement shall 13 include in the agreement procedures for binding arbitration of the 14 disputes arising about the interpretation or application of the 15 agreement.

16 NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Except as otherwise expressly provided in 17 this chapter, nothing in this chapter may be construed to annul, 18 modify, or preclude the renewal or continuation of any lawful agreement 19 entered into before the effective date of this section between an 20 employer and an employee organization covering wages, hours, and terms 21 and conditions of employment. If there is a conflict between any 22 collective bargaining agreement and any resolution, rule, policy, or 23 regulation of the employer or its agents, the terms of the collective 24 bargaining agreement shall prevail.

25 NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Except as otherwise expressly provided in 26 this chapter, this chapter does not deny or otherwise abridge any 27 rights, privileges, or benefits granted by law to employees.

28 NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This chapter does not interfere with the 29 responsibilities and rights of the employer as specified by federal and 30 state law, including the employer's responsibilities to students, the 31 public, and other constituent elements of the institution of higher 32 education.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Sections 1 through 19, 21, and 22 of this 34 act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 41 RCW.

1        NEW SECTION.    Sec. 21.    If any provision of this act or its 2 application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the 3 remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other 4 persons or circumstances is not affected.

5        NEW SECTION.    Sec. 22.    This act takes effect October 1, 2001. The 6 public employment relations commission may immediately take such steps 7 as are necessary to insure that this act is implemented on its 8 effective date.
