3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 18.25.005 and 1994 sp.s. c 9 s 102 are each amended to 5 read as follows:

6 (1) Chiropractic is the practice of health care that deals with the 7 diagnosis or analysis and care or treatment of the vertebral
8 subluxation complex and its effects, articular dysfunction, and 9 musculoskeletal disorders, all for the restoration and maintenance of 10 health and recognizing the recuperative powers of the body.

11 (2) Chiropractic treatment or care includes the use of procedures 12 involving spinal adjustments, and extremity manipulation insofar as any 13 such procedure is complementary or preparatory to a chiropractic spinal 14 adjustment. Chiropractic treatment also includes the use of heat, 15 cold, water, exercise, massage, trigger point therapy, dietary advice 16 and recommendation of nutritional supplementation (~~except for~~ 17 ~~medicines of herbal, animal, or botanical origin~~)), the normal regimen 18 and rehabilitation of the patient, first aid, and counseling on 19 hygiene, sanitation, and preventive measures. Chiropractic care also

1 includes such physiological therapeutic procedures as traction and 2 light, but does not include procedures involving the application of 3 sound, diathermy, or electricity.

4 (3) As part of a chiropractic differential diagnosis, a
5 chiropractor shall perform a physical examination, which may include
6 diagnostic x-rays, to determine the appropriateness of chiropractic
7 care or the need for referral to other health care providers. The 8 chiropractic quality assurance commission shall provide by rule for the 9 type and use of diagnostic and analytical devices and procedures
10 consistent with this chapter.

11 (4) Chiropractic care shall not include the prescription or 12 dispensing of any medicine or drug, the practice of obstetrics or 13 surgery, the use of x-rays or any other form of radiation for 14 therapeutic purposes, colonic irrigation, or any form of venipuncture.

15 (5) Nothing in this chapter prohibits or restricts any other 16 practitioner of a "health profession" defined in RCW 18.120.020(4) from 17 performing any functions or procedures the practitioner is licensed or 18 permitted to perform, and the term "chiropractic" as defined in this 19 chapter shall not prohibit a practitioner licensed under chapter 18.71
20 RCW from performing medical procedures, except such procedures shall 21 not include the adjustment by hand of any articulation of the spine.

22 Sec. 2. RCW 18.25.006 and 1994 sp.s. c 9 s 103 are each amended to
23 read as follows:

34 that may cause neuronal disturbances, with or without displacement
35 detectable by x-ray. The effects of the vertebral subluxation complex 36 may include, but are not limited to, any of the following: Fixation, 37 hypomobility, hypermobility, periarticular muscle spasm, edema, or 38 inflammation.

1 (6) "Articular dysfunction" means an alteration of the 2 biomechanical and physiological dynamics of a joint of the axial or 3 appendicular skeleton.

4 (7) "Musculoskeletal disorders" means abnormalities of the muscles,
5 bones, and connective tissue.

6 (8) "Chiropractic differential diagnosis" means a diagnosis to 7 determine the existence of a vertebral subluxation complex, articular 8 dysfunction, or musculoskeletal disorder, and the appropriateness of 9 chiropractic care or the need for referral to other health care
10 providers.

11 (9) "Chiropractic adjustment" means chiropractic care of a 12 vertebral subluxation complex, articular dysfunction, or 13 musculoskeletal disorder. Such care includes manual or mechanical 14 adjustment of any vertebral articulation and contiguous articulations 15 beyond the normal passive physiological range of motion.

16 (10) "Extremity manipulation" means a corrective thrust or maneuver 17 applied to a joint of the appendicular skeleton. ((The use of 18 extremity manipulation shall be complementary and preparatory to a
