1            AN ACT Relating to the joint committee on veterans' and military 2 affairs; adding a new section to chapter 73.04 RCW; creating a new 3 section; and providing an expiration date.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5            NEW SECTION.    Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 73.04 RCW
6 to read as follows:

7            (1) There is hereby created a joint committee on veterans' and 8 military affairs. The committee shall consist of: (a) Eight members 9 of the senate appointed by the president of the senate, four of whom 10 shall be members of the majority party and four of whom shall be 11 members of the minority party; and (b) eight members of the house of 12 representatives appointed by the speaker, four of whom shall be members 13 of the majority party and four of whom shall be members of the minority 14 party. Members of the committee shall be appointed before the close of 15 the 2001 legislative session, and before the close of each regular 16 session during an odd-numbered year thereafter.

17            (2) Each member's term of office shall run from the close of the 18 session in which he or she was appointed until the close of the next 19 regular session held in an odd-numbered year. If a successor is not

1 appointed during a session, the member's term shall continue until the 2 member is reappointed or a successor is appointed. The term of office
3 for a committee member who does not continue as a member of the senate
4 or house of representatives shall cease upon the convening of the next 5 session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year after the 6 member's appointment, or upon the member's resignation, whichever is 7 earlier. Vacancies on the committee shall be filled by appointment in 8 the same manner as described in subsection (1) of this section. All 9 such vacancies shall be filled from the same political party and from 10 the same house as the member whose seat was vacated.

11 (3) The committee shall establish an executive committee of four 12 members representing the majority and minority caucuses of each house.
13 The executive committee is responsible for performing all general 14 administrative and personnel duties assigned to it in the rules and 15 procedures adopted by the joint committee, as well as other duties
16 delegated to it by the joint committee.

17 (4) The joint committee on veterans' and military affairs has the 18 following powers and duties:

19 (a) To study veterans' issues, active military forces issues, and 20 national guard and reserve component issues, and make recommendations 21 to the legislature; and

22 (b) To study structure and administration of the department of 23 veterans affairs and the military department, and make recommendations 24 to the legislature.

25 (5) The joint committee shall adopt rules and procedures for its 26 orderly operation. The joint committee may create subcommittees to 27 perform duties under this section.

28 (6) This section expires December 31, 2005.

29 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The joint committee on veterans' and 30 military affairs shall study recommending legislation for the upcoming 31 legislative session that requires the display of the national league of 32 families' POW/MIA flag along with the flag of the United States and the 33 flag of the state upon or near the principal building of the public
34 entity on various holidays.
