36 (2) Before any sale, lease, or exchange is made under the 37 provisions of this section the property must be independently appraised
38 by a certified commercial real estate appraiser. Any such sale, lease, 39 or exchange shall be made to the highest competent bidder for a price

1 not less than the independently appraised value of the property and 2 pursuant to a call for bids published in at least one issue of a legal 3 newspaper of general circulation in King county at least fifteen days 4 prior to the date fixed for the bid closing.

5 (3) The sale, lease, or exchange shall be under the direction of 6 the adjutant general in accordance with procedures provided by law.
7 The adjutant general shall proceed with the sale, lease, or exchange 8 only if, in the opinion of the adjutant general, the proceeds from the 9 sale, lease, or exchange of the land and buildings described in this 10 section, together with other funds available to the state military 11 department, are sufficient to purchase or otherwise acquire other real 12 property for the state military department and for the acquisition, 13 purchase, construction, furnishing, and equipping of buildings and 14 other improvements on said real property and the appurtenances thereto.

15 (4) The proceeds of the sale, lease, or exchange of the property 16 legally described in this section shall be transmitted by the adjutant 17 general to the state treasurer to be set aside and used exclusively by 18 the military department for the purposes set forth in this section.

19 (5) Upon the sale, lease, or exchange of the property described in 20 this section, the state military department may select a site or sites 21 for a new armory or readiness center and purchase or otherwise acquire 22 real property for the state of Washington for the purposes set forth in 23 this section and to acquire, purchase, construct, furnish, and equip 24 buildings and other improvements on such real property and the 25 appurtenances thereto.
