State of Washington

57th Legislature

2001 Regular Session

By Senators Kline, Swecker, Patterson, Oke, Shin, Kohl-Welles, Sheahan, Prentice, Rasmussen, Kastama, Benton, Costa, McCaslin, Finkbeiner, Deccio, Fraser and Winsley

Read first time 02/02/2001. Referred to Committee on State & Local Government.

1 AN ACT Relating to whistleblowers; adding a new section to chapter
2 42.40 RCW; and making appropriations.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 42.40 RCW
5 to read as follows:

6 (1) The director of the department of personnel shall establish a 7 rotational registry system to appoint and monitor advocates for those 8 whistleblowers who allege retaliation under RCW 42.40.050.

9 (2) Advocates shall be limited to representation of the 10 whistleblower under RCW 49.60.230 and 49.60.240, including the 11 conference and conciliation stage under RCW 49.60.240. If the parties
12 proceed under RCW 49.60.250 the human rights commission shall provide 13 representation. The advocate shall provide the commission all 14 documents and records, and shall cooperate with the commission in its 15 function as representative of the whistleblower. The whistleblower 16 retaliation advocate shall not accept private employment by the 17 whistleblower under RCW 49.60.250.

1 (3) The advocate's appointment by the department of personnel shall 2 be pursuant to a contract of employment awarded and administered by the 3 department of personnel.

4 (4) To be eligible for placement in the registry, a person must:

5 (a) Be admitted to the practice of law in the state of Washington;

6 (b) Be engaged in private practice;

7 (c) Not have provided legal representation for the alleged 8 retaliating agency for the five years previous to the date on which his 9 or her appointment to the case would occur; and

10 (d) Be able to demonstrate that he or she has completed training in 11 arbitration or mediation.

12 The director may establish additional criteria.

13 (5) Eligibility for a whistleblower to receive appointment of an 14 advocate on his or her behalf shall be determined by the department of 15 personnel and shall be limited to those whistleblowers whose income is 16 less than two hundred percent of the federal poverty level for a person 17 whose family size is the same as the whistleblower.

18 Whistleblowers who are unemployed at the time they request
19 appointment of an advocate under this chapter are eligible to receive 20 appointment of an advocate until such time as they obtain employment at 21 a level of compensation that would disqualify them from eligibility
22 under this section.

23 (6) The rotational registry system shall list advocates in the 24 order in which they are established as being qualified by the 25 department of personnel for listing on the registry. A whistleblower 26 who wishes to be represented by an advocate shall apply to the 27 department. The first three names on the list shall be given to the 28 whistleblower and the whistleblower shall select his or her
29 representative from among those three. If none of the first three 30 choices is acceptable to the whistleblower then the next three names
31 shall be given to the whistleblower from which to make his or her
32 choice. If the whistleblower rejects the names from the second list, 33 he or she shall accept the next name on the list or seek alternative 34 representation at his or her own expense. The name of any advocate who 35 either serves or is rejected is placed, in order, on the bottom of the 36 list.

37 (7) The amount of compensation for the advocate shall be calculated
38 at the rate of one hundred dollars per hour up to five thousand 39 dollars. This shall constitute the sole and entire compensation of the

1 advocate. Costs for all office, clerical, and other support services
2 required by the advocate shall be borne by the advocate.

3 The department of personnel shall monitor compliance with the terms
4 and conditions of the contract. The department of personnel shall 5 terminate any contract when the department determines that the advocate 6 has failed substantially to comply with the terms and conditions of the 7 contract. The whistleblower may terminate the services of the advocate
8 at any time for any cause. The secretary shall review all terminations
9 at the end of each year to determine whether an advocate has failed 10 substantially to comply with terms of his or her contracts. Any 11 advocate who is found to have failed substantially to comply may be 12 removed from the registry by the director.

13 (8) The registry is established January 1, 2002, and may be used 14 for any case open at the time of its creation. The director of 15 personnel shall adopt rules as necessary to implement this section.

16 (9) The department of personnel shall report to the governor, the 17 legislature, and the human rights commission in January of every odd-18 numbered year. This report shall include but not be limited to 19 statistics on the use of the registry, costs to the state, results of 20 cases that received appointment of an advocate, time expended between 21 the filing of a complaint with the human rights commission and the 22 conclusion of the complaint, and any other matter of interest or use to 23 the governor or legislature.

24 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The sum of dollars, or as much
25 thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the fiscal year ending 26 June 30, 2002, from the general fund to the department of personnel for 27 the purposes of section 1 of this act.

28 (2) The sum of dollars, or as much thereof as may be 29 necessary, is appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2003,
30 from the general fund to the department of personnel for the purposes
31 of section 1 of this act.
