Brief Description: Changing provisions for minimum high school graduation requirements.

HB 1312 - DIGEST

Provides that, when adopting minimum high school graduation requirements, the state board shall limit those requirements to the subject matter competencies that students must demonstrate and the subject matter Carnegie units they may complete. Local school directors have the sole authority to determine the organization of a student's learning opportunities and the means by which a student will demonstrate subject matter competence and acquisition of the knowledge and skill needed to meet the goals of the state's basic education act in RCW 28A.150.210.
