

1874

Sponsor(s): Representatives Linville and G. Chandler

Brief Description: Changing provisions relating to water rights.

HB 1874 - DIGEST

Directs the department of health to adopt as rules conservation and efficiency standards and safeguards that shall apply to the transmission of water to and the distribution of water by a public water system receiving water through an intertie approved after the effective date of this act. The standards shall apply to a public water system receiving such water if the public water system has at least one thousand service connections.