

6262

Sponsor(s): Senator Prentice

Brief Description: Making it a class C felony to fly a private plane within one thousand feet of the legislative building or the governor's mansion.

SB 6262 - DIGEST

Declares that every person who operates a private airplane in violation of federal law or regulation by flying closer than one thousand feet to the Washington state legislative building or the governor's mansion is guilty of a class C felony.