EFFECT: As a demonstration project, three second class school districts are allowed to use the design/build procedure to construct an integrated K-12 single structure school building. Each project must be valued between $5 million and $12 million and must be approved by the School District Project Review

Board. When each participating district selects a design-build firm for its project, it must consider the firm's experience working on projects of that magnitude. The Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction must notify all second class school districts when the contracts for the three projects have been awarded. The contracts must be signed before June 30, 2005. Authority to use this alternative contracting procedure terminates June 30, 2005.
