Testimony For: In this time of budgetary constraints and low tax revenue, law enforcement departments feel it is time to place increased accountability on the individuals committing crimes in our community. In 2002 the Tacoma police departments booked 4,898 individuals in Pierce County jails at a cost to the people of $489,654. These initial bookings are a necessary part of the business of law enforcement. This bill will allow counties to reallocate funding to other areas of its' community.

Testimony Against: None.

Testified: David Brame, Tacoma Police Department.
