Background:

Under current law, licensed vehicle dealers are required to collect a variety of government taxes and fees. Most vehicle dealers also license and title the vehicles they sell. Current law prohibits vehicle dealers from charging any kind of administrative or document preparation fee for performing tax collection, licensing and titling activities.

Summary of Substitute Bill:

Vehicle dealers are authorized to charge a documentary service fee of up to $35 per vehicle sale or lease. In order to charge the document service fee, vehicle dealers must observe the following conditions:

- The service fee must be disclosed in writing before the execution of a purchase and sale or lease agreement;
 - The service fee is not represented to the buyer as a fee or charge required by the state to be paid by either the dealer or the buyer;
 - The service fee must be separately designated from the selling price of the vehicle and from any other taxes, fees or charges; and
 - Dealers must disclose in any advertisement that a document service fee of up to $35 may be added to the sale price of a vehicle.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not Requested.

Effective Date: The act takes effect only if SB 6061 or HB 2231 takes effect. If neither of the bills take effect by December 31, 2003, the act is null and void.

Testimony For: Washington law does not allow dealers to separately charge this fee. Many other states permit dealers to charge this fee.

Testimony Against: None.

Testified: Representative Murray, prime sponsor; and Jim Boldt, Washington Auto Dealers Association.
