Background:

When the Secretary of Health (Secretary) or a health professions board or commission determines upon investigation that there has been a violation of the Uniform Disciplinary Act, they may file a statement of charges. Upon being served with a statement of charges, a licensed health care provider or applicant may request a hearing within 20 days to contest the charges. A 60-day extension may be granted for good cause. If no hearing is requested, then the matter is considered to be in default and the Secretary or board or commission may enter a decision based on the facts determined from the investigation.

Summary of Engrossed Substitute Bill:

As an alternative to a statement of charges, the Secretary of Health or health professions board or commission may issue a written notice of action. The written notice of action shall state the reasons for the action and impose a specified sanction, other than revocation. If the person who is the subject of the action requests an adjudicative proceeding within 30 days of being served, the action has no effect and the matter will be determined by a hearing. The person may also request a 60-day extension for good cause. If no request for an adjudicative hearing is made before the time to respond, then the action becomes effective and the sanction may be imposed without a hearing. The person may petition within one year for reconsideration by demonstrating good cause for not receiving or replying to the action.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed, except for section 2, relating to practice without a license, which takes effect January 1, 2005.

Testimony For: This bill will help the Department of Health to investigate dangerous health care providers. This will protect against destruction of physical evidence. Streamlining the disciplinary process can save money spent on investigations.

Testimony Against: There should be a warrant with probable cause for turning over records. The defendant should have the opportunity to contest the warrant. The default proceedings assume that it is the person's fault for the default.
