By Representatives Eickmeyer, Delvin, Pettigrew, Carrell, Upthegrove, Haigh and McMahan

Read first time 01/20/2003. Referred to Committee on Juvenile Justice & Family Law.

1 AN ACT Relating to the placement of juveniles under the age of 2 eighteen who have been convicted as adults; and amending RCW 72.01.410.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 72.01.410 and 2002 c 171 s 1 are each amended to read 5 as follows:

6 (1)(a) Whenever any child under the age of eighteen is convicted in 7 the courts of this state of a crime amounting to a felony, and is 8 committed for a term of confinement in a correctional institution
9 wherein adults are confined, the secretary of corrections, after making 10 an independent assessment and evaluation of the child and determining 11 that the needs and correctional goals for the child could better be met 12 by the programs and housing environment provided by the juvenile 13 correctional institution, with the consent of the secretary of social 14 and health services, may transfer such child to a juvenile correctional 15 institution, or to such other institution as is now, or may hereafter 16 be authorized by law to receive such child, until such time as the 17 child arrives at the age of twenty-one years, whereupon the child shall 18 be returned to the institution of original commitment. Retention 19 within a juvenile detention facility or return to an adult correctional

1 facility shall regularly be reviewed by the secretary of corrections
2 and the secretary of social and health services with a determination 3 made based on the level of maturity and sophistication of the 4 individual, the behavior and progress while within the juvenile 5 detention facility, security needs, and the program/treatment
6 alternatives which would best prepare the individual for a successful 7 return to the community. Notice of such transfers shall be given to 8 the clerk of the committing court and the parents, guardian, or next of 9 kin of such child, if known.

10 (b) An offender under the age of eighteen who has been convicted in 11 adult criminal court and committed to a term of confinement at the 12 department of corrections must be evaluated by the secretary of 13 corrections upon the offender's initial intake and classification to 14 determine if the offender is eligible to be transferred to a juvenile 15 facility under this section. The secretary of corrections shall 16 consult with the secretary of the department of social and health 17 services when making the evaluation.

18 (c) The secretary of corrections and the secretary of the 19 department of social and health services shall jointly develop 20 screening criteria for the transfer of offenders under this section.

21 (2)(a) Except as provided in (b) and (c) of this subsection, an 22 offender under the age of eighteen who is convicted in adult criminal 23 court and who is committed to a term of confinement at the department 24 of corrections must be placed in a housing unit, or a portion of a 25 housing unit, that is separated from offenders eighteen years of age or 26 older, until the offender reaches the age of eighteen.

27 (b) An offender who reaches eighteen years of age may remain in a 28 housing unit for offenders under the age of eighteen if the secretary 29 of corrections determines that: (i) The offender's needs and the 30 correctional goals for the offender could continue to be better met by 31 the programs and housing environment that is separate from offenders
32 eighteen years of age and older; and (ii) the programs or housing 33 environment for offenders under the age of eighteen will not be 34 substantially affected by the continued placement of the offender in 35 that environment. The offender may remain placed in a housing unit for 36 offenders under the age of eighteen until such time as the secretary of 37 corrections determines that the offender's needs and correctional goals

1 are no longer better met in that environment but in no case past the 2 offender's twenty-first birthday.

3 (c) An offender under the age of eighteen may be housed in an 4 intensive management unit or administrative segregation unit containing 5 offenders eighteen years of age or older if it is necessary for the 6 safety or security of the offender or staff. In these cases, the 7 offender shall be kept physically separate from other offenders at all 8 times.
