Brief Description: Prohibiting discrimination by government against private entities in contracting with public entities, receiving public funds, having access to public facilities, or participating in public programs.

HB 3191 - DIGEST

Finds that private entities have a constitutionally protected right to establish their own particular values, standards, or criteria for determining membership or association and that government shall not discriminate against private entities as a result of policies such entities may adopt or pursue that qualify membership in or association with the entity based on the sexual preference or orientation of any person.
