HB 1500 by Representatives Upthegrove, Rockefeller and Cooper

Providing the department of fish and wildlife with a range of enforcement options to enforce the hydraulic code.

Finds that violations of the hydraulic code may range from relatively minor infractions to serious offenses. Many of the more serious offenses result in destruction of fish life and habitat because work is being conducted in an improper way, or at the incorrect time of the year.

Recognizes that, given the wide range in violations, the department of fish and wildlife needs a range of enforcement authorities. Minor offenses need to be dealt with as infractions with accompanying small fines, while serious offenses need to be prosecuted as gross misdemeanors.

Recognizes that, when violations lead to destruction of fish life and habitat, such actions must be expeditiously terminated, and that the violator must remediate the nonconforming site.

Seeks to provide the department with an increased range of enforcement authorities by directing that minor offenses be efficiently dealt with as civil infractions, and that orders may be issued to promptly stop work and provide for remediation at sites where violations of the hydraulic code are leading to the destruction of fish life and habitat.

SB 5493 by Senators Regala, Fairley, Eide, B. Sheldon, Fraser, Doumit, Kohl-Welles and Kline

Authorizing a proposal for an environmental quality benchmarks program.

Finds that a system of environmental quality benchmarks is an integral component of transitioning from traditional command and control regulatory strategies to protect environmental quality to performance-based strategies that allow greater flexibility in choosing the means to attain goals that are publicly developed and supported. The success of such performance-based strategies is dependent upon high quality information that is widely available and useable by the regulated community and the public generally.

Declares it is the purpose of this act to authorize the development of a proposal for an environmental quality benchmarks program for future legislative consideration, and to make better use of existing monitoring data and analysis to inform the public and to further performance-based environmental quality strategies.

(2) Assessing the contribution of diseases to disabilities and premature mortality;

(3) Measuring the effectiveness of prevention strategies; and

(4) Generating hypotheses that may lead to new scientific knowledge about the causes of, and most effective ways to fight, chronic diseases.

Declares it is the intent of the legislature in creating the environmental health tracking system to form a partnership to do all of the following: (1) Provide a continually updated data base, with linkages to the survey, biomonitoring, and disease data collected under section 3 of this act, in order to assess the impact of environmental contaminants on the human body;

(2) On an ongoing basis, track and evaluate a variety of chronic diseases in relation to environmental exposures, including state and local data on actual incidences of chronic disease;

(3) Make the data available to the public in an accessible and useful format; and Authorizing penalties for wage payment violations.

Finds that over five thousand state residents per year file cases and complaints with the department of labor and industries alleging they have been denied payment for work they performed. Finds that the Washington state minimum wage law and wage claim laws do not authorize adequate penalties against violators. Creating a pilot project to study the feasibility of privatizing liquor retailing.

Declares an intent for the franchising of the retail sale of liquor to result in a system that is more efficient than public sector retailing.

Intends to initiate a pilot project to close a portion of the state's liquor retail stores, to monitor the impact of the store closures on state revenues, and to consider closing more state liquor stores in the future if the initial store closures yield benefits for the state.

Provides that, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board is directed to implement the closure of twenty-five state liquor stores by December 31, 2005. When determining which state liquor stores to close, the board must give due consideration to the timing of the expiration of liquor store leases, as well as input from the task force.

Provides that a state liquor store may not be closed unless at least one franchise exists in the franchise area covered by the liquor store, or unless the task force determines that reasonable alternative access is available to persons who previously purchased spirits from the state liquor store that is closing.

Declares that nothing in this act and RCW 66.08.150 shall be construed to eliminate liquor vendors as referenced in RCW 66.08.050, also known as contract agency stores, or to obligate liquor vendors to place bids for their stores.
