House Bills

HB 1151-S2 by House Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Lovick, Lantz, Jarrett, Miloscia, Delvin, Moeller, Wallace, G. Simpson and Upthegrove)

Regulating the keeping of dangerous wild animals.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 2ND SUBSTITUTE)

Provides that a person may not own, possess, keep, harbor, bring into the state, or have custody or control of a dangerous or potentially dangerous wild animal unless that person holds a personal possession permit for that animal issued by an animal control authority.

Provides that a person shall not breed a potentially dangerous wild animal.

Provides that a person in legal possession of a potentially dangerous wild animal prior to the effective date of this act and who is the legal possessor of the animal may keep possession of the animal until July 1, 2009. The person must maintain veterinary records, acquisition papers for the animal, if available, or other documents or records that establish that the person possessed the animal prior to the effective date of this act. The person shall have the burden of proving that he or she possessed the animal prior to the effective date of this act.

Authorizes a person who possesses a potentially dangerous wild animal as allowed under this act to, prior to July 1, 2009, apply to the animal control authority for permission to maintain possession of the animal after July 1, 2009. The animal control authority may allow the possessor to maintain possession of the animal for a time period determined by the animal control authority and under conditions specified by the animal control authority.

Requires the animal control authority to immediately confiscate a potentially dangerous wild animal if: (1) The animal is possessed after July 1, 2009, and the possessor has not been granted permission to maintain possession after July 1, 2009; or

(2) The animal control authority has probable cause to believe that the animal was acquired after the effective date of this act in violation of this act.

Authorizes a city or county to adopt an ordinance governing potentially dangerous wild animals that is more restrictive than this chapter. However, nothing in this act requires a city or county to adopt an ordinance to be in compliance with this act.

Provides that a person who acquires possession of a potentially dangerous wild animal after the effective date of this act, or who possesses a potentially dangerous wild animal after July 1, 2009, in violation of this act, is liable for a civil penalty of not less than two hundred dollars and not more than two thousand dollars for each animal with respect to which there is a violation and for each day the violation continues.

Declares that the animal control authority and its staff and agents, local law enforcement agents, and county sheriffs are authorized and empowered to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

Declares an intent to establish the proprietary mechanisms for the department, on state-owned aquatic lands, to: Serve as the long-term manager of compensatory mitigation sites; utilize in-lieu fee mitigation funds for habitat improvement projects; and develop, implement, and manage mitigation banks.

Authorizes the department to create an endowment for the purpose of generating funds that are to be used for the long-term monitoring, maintenance, and management of proprietary compensatory mitigation sites and mitigation bank sites.

Provides that any endowment created by the department may accept money from public or private entities. However, the department may only accept money for an endowment that will fund compensatory mitigation sites and compensatory mitigation bank sites that are: (1) Developed by the public or private entities that donate the money;

(2) Are located on state-owned aquatic lands; and

HB 2761-S by House Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives McCoy, Santos, Quall, Pettigrew, McDermott, D. Simpson, O'Brien, Lovick, Kenney, Haigh, Chase and Veloria)

Reestablishing the Washington commission on student learning. Revised for 1st Substitute: Providing for examining EALR's.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Finds that the major focus of the no child left behind act is to provide all children with a fair, equal, and significant opportunity to obtain a high-quality education. In response to the no child left behind legislation, Washington has developed a single statewide accountability system that is required to ensure that: All K-12 public school students are included in the state assessment system; at least ninety-five percent of the students enrolled in the tested grades are assessed; all student groups reach the states proficiency level in reading and mathematics by 2013-14; schools and districts that do not meet the state's adequate yearly progress requirements are identified as needing improvement.

Finds that in 2003 over one-third of school districts in Washington did not make adequate yearly progress and more dramatically, the state, itself, did not meet its adequate yearly progress goal overall.

Finds that the office of the superintendent of public instruction's comprehensive research entitled, Addressing the Achievement Gap: A Challenge for Washington State Educators (November, 2002) concludes that, low-income and minority students encounter fewer opportunities to learn, inadequate instruction and support, and lower expectations from their schools and teachers.

Declares that research has also pointed out that schools are more reflective of white, middle-class society. This can lead to a disconnect between students who come from different cultures and family conditions and the traditional school structure and expectations.

Acknowledges that the Washington state school directors association reports that: Serious attention must be given to creating learning environments that are intolerant of racism and exclusion and in which high expectations are held for all students; curriculum and teaching practices must recognize differences in ethnicity, language, and culture and teachers must be skilled in teaching students unlike themselves; and in order to close the achievement gap, there must be understanding of the impact of language, culture, race, and poverty on student achievement.

Finds that the social, economic, and psychological fallout from failure to meet adequate yearly progress threatens all levels of our society and its stability.

Declares an intent to transform systems to enable the state and school districts to meet adequate yearly progress, particularly with historically marginalized students.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Finds that conserved water from the developed portions of the federal Columbia basin project can provide an immediate source of surface water to offset a limited portion of ground water depletions within the undeveloped portions of the federal project extending the availability of ground water for domestic, municipal, industrial, and agricultural uses.

Finds that recent studies have documented water conservation in areas served by project irrigation districts as a result of distribution system lining and piping and use of more efficient on-farm irrigation technology.

Declares an intent that the department of ecology enter into agreements with the United States and Columbia basin project irrigation districts regarding the allocation of water conserved from within areas currently served by project waters to deep well irrigated lands within the federal Columbia basin project and for other authorized project beneficial uses. Requiring safe drinking water in Washington public schools. Revised for 1st Substitute: Requiring safe drinking water in schools.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Finds that the best way to ensure that drinking water is safe in a particular school building is to test drinking and cooking water outlets such as taps, bubblers, and fountains, and to promptly correct problems where contaminant concentrations are found to exceed safe levels.

Requires that, in adopting school drinking water standards, the board shall be guided by, but not limited to, the rules for controlling these contaminants in drinking water as contained in 40 C.F.R. Sec. 141 and EPA guidance promulgated thereunder. The standards shall provide reasonable margins of safety.

Directs the board to adopt emergency rules establishing interim maximum contaminant levels and testing protocols by April 1, 2005. The board shall adopt final maximum contaminant level standards and protocols by April 1, 2006.

Declares an intent that the exclusive responsibility for undertaking corrective actions to respond to exceedances of drinking water standards in schools remains with the governing entities of the school institutions, but to ensure that sufficient testing of drinking water is conducted to identify where such exceedances are occurring and that test results are widely accessible to parents, students, staff, and to local and state health departments.

Improving communication regarding offenders with treatment orders. Revised for 1st Substitute: Improving collaboration regarding offenders with treatment orders.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Declares an intent to clarify the standards for commitment and improve the coordination between the department of corrections and mental health and chemical dependency treatment providers to enhance public safety by improving compliance with treatment and supervision orders and by providing both treatment providers and the department of corrections with more current, complete information about the offender's status.

Provides that, when a county designated mental health professional or a professional person has determined that a person has a mental disorder, and is otherwise committable, the cause of the person's mental disorder shall not make the person ineligible for commitment under chapter 71.05 RCW.

Requires the department to, subject to available resources, electronically, or by the most cost-effective means available, provide the department of corrections with the names, last dates of services, and addresses of specific regional support networks and mental health service providers that delivered mental health services to a person subject to chapter 9.94A or 9.95 RCW pursuant to an agreement between the departments.

Provides that information and records shall be disclosed to the department of corrections pursuant to and in compliance with the provisions of RCW 71.05.445 for the purposes of completing presentence investigations or risk assessment reports, supervision of an incarcerated offender or offender under supervision in the community, planning for and provision of supervision of an offender, or assessment of an offender's risk to the community.

Declares that disclosure under this provision is mandatory for the purposes of the health insurance portability and accountability act.

Declares that an offender's failure to inform the department of court-ordered treatment upon request by the department is a violation of the conditions of supervision if the offender is in the community and an infraction if the offender is in confinement, and the violation or infraction is subject to sanctions.

Provides that, when any court orders a person to receive treatment under this act, the order shall include a statement that if the person is, or becomes, subject to supervision by the department of corrections, the person must notify the treatment provider and the person's mental health treatment information must be shared with the department of corrections for the duration of the offender's incarceration and supervision, under RCW 71.05.445. Upon a petition by a person who has no history of violent acts, the court may, for good cause, find that public safety would not be enhanced by the sharing of this person's information.

Requires the department of social and health services and the department of corrections to develop a training plan for department employees, contractors, and necessary mental health service providers and chemical dependency treatment providers covering the information sharing processes for offenders with treatment orders and terms of supervision in the community.

Requires the department of corrections and the department of social and health services, in consultation with prosecuting attorneys, the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs, regional support networks, county designated chemical dependency specialists, and other experts that the departments deem appropriate, to develop a model for multidisciplinary case management and release planning of offenders classified as having high resource needs in multiple service areas.

legislature, to assess the current and needed residential capacity for crisis response and ongoing treatment services for persons in need of treatment for mental disorders and chemical dependency.

Provides that a final report assessing the types, number, and location of beds needed for emergency, transitional, and ongoing treatment shall be submitted to appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 2005.
