Brief Description: Making certain types of extreme fighting illegal.

SB 6103-S - DIGEST

(DIGEST AS ENACTED)

Declares that no amateur or professional no holds barred fighting or combative fighting type of contest, exhibition, match, or similar type of event, nor any elimination tournament, may be held in this state.

Provides that any person promoting such an event is guilty of a class C felony. Additionally, the director may apply to a superior court for an injunction against any and all promoters of a contest, and may request that the court seize all money and assets relating to the competition.
