Background:

Housing Finance Commission (HFC) Home Buyer Programs

The HFC is required in statute to provide a housing finance program for income eligible first-time homebuyers. The HFC offers several financing programs including House Key and House Choice which offers below-market-rate loans and down payment assistance, and also allow homebuyers to qualify for mortgages with higher loan ratios and pay less closing costs than under conventional loan programs.

Although not required in statute, the HFC periodically develops supplemental programs to provide additional assistance to specific targeted populations including teachers, low-income rural residents, residents of a specific area, and disabled individuals.

Federal Veteran Affairs (VA) Home Loan Program

The VA Home Loan Program is a loan guarantee program wherein the federal government guarantees part of the total home loan for eligible home buyers. This guarantee permits a purchaser to obtain a competitive interest rate, sometimes without a down payment, depending upon the lender. The lender is protected against the loss if the borrower fails to repay the loan, up to the amount of the guaranty.

Summary of Substitute Bill:

The HFC must create and implement a down payment assistance homeownership program to assist veterans in purchasing a home. This program must work in conjunction with other HFC housing finance programs.

The program shall be available to the following:

- (1) Washington veterans as defined in statute (RCW 41.04.007);
- (2) members and former members of the Washington National Guard and reserve; and
- (3) never remarried spouses, and dependent children of deceased, eligible veterans.
