Hearing Date: 3/18/05

Staff: Trudes Tango Hutcheson (786-7384).

Background:

A statute enacted in 1909 makes it a misdemeanor to maliciously make a false or defamatory statement about any female who is at least 12 years old and who is not a common prostitute, if the statement injures her reputation for virtue or chastity or exposes her to hatred, contempt, or ridicule. The statement is presumed to be malicious unless it is justified. It is justified when the statement is true and fair and spoken with good motives and for justifiable ends. The testimony of the woman slandered that the slanderous statement was made is insufficient to support a conviction unless there is additional corroborating evidence.

The statutes dealing with slander of a woman are repealed.
