State of Washington

59th Legislature

2005 Regular Session

By House Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Murray, Woods, Conway, O'Brien, Ericks, Condotta, Wood, Simpson, Campbell, P. Sullivan, Lovick, Williams, Chase, Hinkle and Ormsby)

READ FIRST TIME 03/01/05.

1 AN ACT Relating to negotiating state patrol officer wages and 2 wage-related matters; amending RCW 41.56.473 and 41.56.475; providing 3 an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 41.56.473 and 1999 c 217 s 3 are each amended to read
6 as follows:

7 (1) In addition to the entities listed in RCW 41.56.020, this 8 chapter applies to the ((Washington)) state ((patrol)) with respect to 9 the officers of the Washington state patrol appointed under RCW
10 43.43.020(~~(. Subjects of bargaining include wage related matters)~~), 11 except that the ((Washington)) state ((patrol)) is prohibited from 12 negotiating (~~(rates of pay or wage levels and)~~) any matters relating to 13 retirement benefits or health care benefits or other employee insurance 14 benefits.

15 (2) For the purposes of negotiating wages, wage-related matters, 16 and nonwage matters, the state shall be represented by the governor or 17 the governor's designee who is appointed under chapter 41.80 RCW, and 18 costs of the negotiations under this section shall be reimbursed as 19 provided in RCW 41.80.140.

1       (3) The negotiation of provisions pertaining to wages and wage-2 related matters in a collective bargaining agreement between the 3 ((Washington)) state ((patrol)) and the Washington state patrol
4 officers is subject to the following:

5       (a) The state's bargaining representative must periodically consult 6 with a subcommittee of the joint committee on employment relations
7 created in RCW 41.80.010(5) which shall consist of the four members 8 appointed to the joint committee with leadership positions in the 9 senate and the house of representatives, and the chairs and ranking
10 minority members of the senate transportation committee and the house 11 transportation committee, or their successor committees. The 12 subcommittee must be consulted regarding the appropriations necessary 13 to implement these provisions in a collective bargaining agreement and, 14 on completion of negotiations, must be advised on the elements of these 15 provisions.

16       (b) Provisions that are entered into before the legislature 17 approves the funds necessary to implement the provisions must be 18 conditioned upon the legislature's subsequent approval of the funds.

19       Sec. 2. RCW 41.56.475 and 1999 c 217 s 4 are each amended to read
20 as follows:

21       In addition to the classes of employees listed in RCW 41.56.030(7), 22 the provisions of RCW 41.56.430 through 41.56.452 and 41.56.470,
23 41.56.480, and 41.56.490 also apply to Washington state patrol officers 24 appointed under RCW 43.43.020 as provided in this section, subject to 25 the following:

26       (1) The mediator or arbitration panel may consider only matters
27 that are subject to bargaining under RCW 41.56.473.

28       (2) The decision of an arbitration panel is not binding on the 29 legislature and, if the legislature does not approve the funds
30 necessary to implement provisions pertaining to wages and wage-related 31 matters of an arbitrated collective bargaining agreement, is not 32 binding on the state or the Washington state patrol.

33       (3) In making its determination, the arbitration panel shall be 34 mindful of the legislative purpose enumerated in RCW 41.56.430 and, as 35 additional standards or guidelines to aid it in reaching a decision, 36 shall take into consideration the following factors:

37       (a) The constitutional and statutory authority of the employer;

1 (b) Stipulations of the parties;

2 (c) Comparison of the hours and conditions of employment of 3 personnel involved in the proceedings with the hours and conditions of 4 employment of like personnel of like employers of similar size on the 5 west coast of the United States;

6 (d) Changes in any of the foregoing circumstances during the 7 pendency of the proceedings; and

8 (e) Such other factors, not confined to the foregoing, which are 9 normally or traditionally taken into consideration in the determination
10 of matters that are subject to bargaining under RCW 41.56.473.

11 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate 12 preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the 13 state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect
14 July 1, 2005.
