HOUSE BILL 1542

State of Washington

59th Legislature

2005 Regular Session

By Representatives Lantz, Hinkle, Appleton, Rodne, Lovick, Newhouse, Buri, Darneille, Williams, McDermott, Clibborn, Schual-Berke, O'Brien, McIntire, Kagi, Hasegawa, Dickerson, Green, Kenney and Kilmer

Read first time 01/27/2005. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

1 AN ACT Relating to indigent defense services; amending RCW
2 10.101.005 and 10.101.030; and adding new sections to chapter 10.101
3 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 10.101.005 and 1989 c 409 s 1 are each amended to read
6 as follows:

7 The legislature finds that effective legal representation 8 ((should)) must be provided for indigent persons and persons who are 9 indigent and able to contribute, consistent with the constitutional 10 requirements of fairness, equal protection, and due process in all 11 cases where the right to counsel attaches.

12 Sec. 2. RCW 10.101.030 and 1989 c 409 s 4 are each amended to read
13 as follows:

14 Each county or city under this chapter shall adopt standards for 15 the delivery of public defense services, whether those services are 16 provided by contract, assigned counsel, or a public defender office.
17 Standards shall include the following: Compensation of counsel, duties 18 and responsibilities of counsel, case load limits and types of cases,

1 responsibility for expert witness fees and other costs associated with 2 representation, administrative expenses, support services, reports of 3 attorney activity and vouchers, training, supervision, monitoring and 4 evaluation of attorneys, substitution of attorneys or assignment of 5 contracts, limitations on private practice of contract attorneys,
6 qualifications of attorneys, disposition of client complaints, cause 7 for termination of contract or removal of attorney, and 8 nondiscrimination. The standards endorsed by the Washington state bar 9 association for the provision of public defense services (~~may~~) should 10 serve as guidelines to (~~contracting~~) local legislative authorities in 11 adopting standards.

12 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 10.101 RCW
13 to read as follows:

14 The Washington state office of public defense shall disburse
15 appropriated funds to counties and cities for the purpose of improving 16 the quality of public defense services. Counties may apply for up to 17 their pro rata share as set forth in section 4 of this act provided 18 that counties conform to application procedures established by the 19 office of public defense and improve the quality of services for both 20 juveniles and adults. Cities may apply for moneys pursuant to the 21 grant program set forth in section 6 of this act. In order to receive 22 funds, each applying county or city must require that attorneys 23 providing public defense services attend training approved by the 24 office of public defense at least once per calendar year. Each 25 applying county or city shall report the expenditure for all public 26 defense services in the previous calendar year, as well as case 27 statistics for that year, including per attorney caseloads, and shall 28 provide a copy of each current public defense contract to the office of 29 public defense with its application. Each individual or organization 30 that contracts to perform public defense services for a county or city 31 shall report to the county or city hours billed for nonpublic defense 32 legal services in the previous calendar year, including number and 33 types of private cases.

34 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 10.101 RCW
35 to read as follows:

36 (1)(a) Subject to the availability of funds appropriated for this

1 purpose, the office of public defense shall disburse to applying 2 counties that meet the requirements of section 3 of this act designated 3 funds under this chapter on a pro rata basis pursuant to the formula
4 set forth in section 5 of this act and shall disburse to eligible 5 cities, funds pursuant to section 6 of this act. Each fiscal year for 6 which it receives state funds under this chapter, a county or city must 7 document to the office of public defense that it is meeting the 8 standards for provision of indigent defense services as endorsed by the 9 Washington state bar association or that the funds received under this 10 chapter have been used to make appreciable demonstrable improvements in 11 the delivery of public defense services towards achieving those 12 standards, including the following:

13 (i) Adoption by ordinance of a legal representation plan that 14 addresses the factors in RCW 10.101.030. The plan must apply to any 15 contract or agency providing indigent defense services for the county 16 or city;

17 (ii) Requiring attorneys who provide public defense services to 18 attend training under section 3 of this act;

19 (iii) Requiring attorneys who handle the most serious cases to meet
20 specified qualifications as set forth in the Washington state bar 21 association endorsed standards for public defense services or 22 participate in at least one case consultation per case with office of 23 public defense resource attorneys who are so qualified. The most 24 serious cases include all cases of murder in the first or second 25 degree, persistent offender cases, and class A felonies. This 26 subsection (1)(a)(iii) does not apply to cities receiving funds under 27 sections 3 through 6 of this act;

28 (iv) Requiring contracts to address the subject of compensation for 29 extraordinary cases;

30 (v) Identifying funding specifically for the purpose of paying 31 experts (A) for which public defense attorneys may file ex parte
32 motions, or (B) which should be specifically designated within a public 33 defender agency budget;

34 (vi) Identifying funding specifically for the purpose of paying 35 investigators (A) for which public defense attorneys may file ex parte
36 motions, and (B) which should be specifically designated within a 37 public defender agency budget.

1 (b) The cost of providing counsel in cases where there is a 2 conflict of interest shall not be borne by the attorney or agency who 3 has the conflict.

4 (2) The office of public defense shall determine eligibility of 5 counties and cities to receive state funds under this chapter. If a 6 determination is made that a county or city receiving state funds under 7 this chapter did not substantially comply with this section, the office 8 of public defense shall notify the county or city of the failure to 9 comply and unless the county or city contacts the office of public 10 defense and substantially corrects the deficiencies within ninety days 11 after the date of notice, or some other mutually agreed period of time, 12 the county's or city's eligibility to continue receiving funds under 13 this chapter is terminated. If an applying county or city disagrees 14 with the determination of the office of public defense as to the 15 county's or city's eligibility, the county or city may file an appeal 16 with the advisory committee of the office of public defense within 17 thirty days of the eligibility determination. The decision of the 18 advisory committee is final.

19 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 10.101 RCW
20 to read as follows:

21 The moneys shall be distributed to each county determined to be 22 eligible to receive moneys by the office of public defense as 23 determined under this section. Ninety percent of the funding 24 appropriated shall be designated as "county moneys" and shall be 25 distributed as follows:

26 (1) Six percent of the county moneys appropriated shall be 27 distributed as a base allocation among the eligible counties. A 28 county's base allocation shall be equal to this six percent divided by 29 the total number of eligible counties.

30 (2) Ninety-four percent of the county moneys appropriated shall be 31 distributed among the eligible counties as follows:

32 (a) Fifty percent of this amount shall be distributed on a pro rata
33 basis to each eligible county based upon the population of the county 34 as a percentage of the total population of all eligible counties; and

35 (b) Fifty percent of this amount shall be distributed on a pro rata 36 basis to each eligible county based upon the annual number of criminal

1 cases filed in the county superior court as a percentage of the total 2 annual number of criminal cases filed in the superior courts of all 3 eligible counties.

4 (3) Under this section:

5 (a) The population of the county or city is the most recent number 6 determined by the office of financial management;

7 (b) The annual number of criminal cases filed in the county 8 superior court is determined by the most recent annual report of the 9 courts of Washington, as published by the office of the administrator 10 for the courts;

11 (c) Distributions and eligibility for distributions in the 12 2005-2007 biennium shall be based on 2004 figures for the annual number 13 of criminal cases that are filed as described under (b) of this 14 subsection. Future distributions shall be based on the most recent 15 figures for the annual number of criminal cases that are filed as 16 described under (b) of this subsection.

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 10.101 RCW
18 to read as follows:

19 The moneys under section 3 of this act shall be distributed to each 20 city determined to be eligible under this section by the office of 21 public defense. Ten percent of the funding appropriated shall be 22 designated as "city moneys" and distributed as follows:

23 (1) The office of public defense shall administer a grant program
24 to select the cities eligible to receive city moneys. Incorporated 25 cities may apply for grants. Applying cities must conform to the 26 requirements of sections 3 and 4 of this act.

27 (2) City moneys shall be divided among a maximum of five applying 28 cities and shall be distributed in a timely manner to accomplish the 29 goals of the grants.

30 (3) Criteria for award of grants shall be established by the office 31 of public defense after soliciting input from the association of 32 Washington cities. Award of the grants shall be determined by the 33 office of public defense.
