
SENATE BILL 6396

State of Washington 59th Legislature 2006 Regular Session

By Senators Kohl-Welles, Schmidt, Pridemore, Keiser, Franklin, Thibaudeau, Spanel and Jacobsen

Read first time 01/11/2006. Referred to Committee on Labor, Commerce, Research & Development.

1 AN ACT Relating to the accumulation an use of sick leave accrued by 2 part-time faculty; and amending RCW 28B.50.551.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 28B.50.551 and 2000 c 128 s 3 are each amended to read 5 as follows:

6 The board of trustees of each college district shall adopt for each
7 community and technical college under its jurisdiction written policies 8 on granting leaves to employees of the district and those colleges, 9 including but not limited to leaves for attendance at official or 10 private institutions and conferences; professional leaves for personnel
11 consistent with the provisions of RCW 28B.10.650; leaves for illness,
12 injury, bereavement, and emergencies, consistent with RCW 28B.50.4893, 13 and except as otherwise in this section provided, all with such 14 compensation as the board of trustees may prescribe, except that the 15 board shall grant to all such persons leave with full compensation for 16 illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies as follows:

17 (1) For persons under contract to be employed, or otherwise 18 employed, for at least three quarters, not more than twelve days per 19 year, commencing with the first day on which work is to be performed;

1 provisions of any contract in force on June 12, 1980, which conflict
2 with requirements of this subsection shall continue in effect until 3 contract expiration; after expiration, any new contract executed
4 between the parties shall be consistent with this subsection;

5 (2)(a) Such leave entitlement may be accumulated after the first 6 three-quarter period of employment for full-time employees, and may be 7 taken at any time;

8 (b) For part-time academic employees, such leave entitlement 9 (~~may~~) shall be accumulated after the first quarter of employment by 10 a college district or the first quarter after June 8, 2000, whichever 11 is later, and (~~may~~) shall be permitted to be taken at any time;

12 (3) Leave for illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies
13 heretofore accumulated pursuant to law, rule, regulation or policy by 14 persons presently employed by college districts and community and 15 technical colleges shall be added to such leave accumulated under this 16 section;

17 (4) Except as otherwise provided in this section or other law,
18 accumulated leave under this section not taken at the time such person 19 retires or ceases to be employed by college districts or community and 20 technical colleges shall not be compensable;

21 (5) Accumulated leave for illness, injury, bereavement and 22 emergencies shall be transferred from one college district to another 23 or between a college district and the following: Any state agency, any 24 educational service district, any school district, or any other 25 institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.10.016;

26 (6) Leave accumulated by a person in a college district or 27 community and technical college prior to leaving that district or 28 college may, under the policy of the board of trustees, be granted to 29 such person when he or she returns to the employment of that district 30 or college; and

31 (7) Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from 32 this section until July 1, 1993.
