
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL 6490

State of Washington

59th Legislature

2006 Regular Session

By Senate Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Rasmussen and Kline)

READ FIRST TIME 02/02/06.

1 AN ACT Relating to mitigating circumstances allowing departures
2 from sentencing guidelines; and amending RCW 9.94A.535.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 9.94A.535 and 2005 c 68 s 3 are each amended to read
5 as follows:

6 The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range
7 for an offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, 8 that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an 9 exceptional sentence. Facts supporting aggravated sentences, other 10 than the fact of a prior conviction, shall be determined pursuant to 11 the provisions of RCW 9.94A.537.

12 Whenever a sentence outside the standard sentence range is imposed,
13 the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written 14 findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the 15 standard sentence range shall be a determinate sentence.

16 If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside
17 the standard sentence range should be imposed, the sentence is subject
18 to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.585(4).

1 A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.589 (1) and (2)
2 governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or 3 concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in 4 this section, and may be appealed by the offender or the state as set 5 forth in RCW 9.94A.585 (2) through (6).

6 (1) Mitigating Circumstances - Court to Consider

7 The court may impose an exceptional sentence below the standard
8 range if it finds that mitigating circumstances are established by a 9 preponderance of the evidence. The following are illustrative only and 10 are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

11 (a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing 12 participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

13 (b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good 14 faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any 15 damage or injury sustained.

16 (c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, 17 threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but 18 which significantly affected his or her conduct.

19 (d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was 20 induced by others to participate in the crime.

21 (e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his 22 or her conduct, or to conform his or her conduct to the requirements of 23 the law, was significantly impaired. Voluntary use of drugs or alcohol 24 is excluded.

25 (f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and 26 the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the 27 safety or well-being of the victim.

28 (g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.589 29 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of 30 the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

31 (h) The defendant or the defendant's children suffered a continuing 32 pattern of physical or sexual abuse by the victim of the offense and 33 the offense is a response to that abuse.

34 (i) The offender score due to other current offenses, as opposed to 35 prior offenses, results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly 36 excessive.

37 (2) Aggravating Circumstances - Considered and Imposed by the Court

1 The trial court may impose an aggravated exceptional sentence
2 without a finding of fact by a jury under the following circumstances:

3 (a) The defendant and the state both stipulate that justice is best 4 served by the imposition of an exceptional sentence outside the 5 standard range, and the court finds the exceptional sentence to be 6 consistent with and in furtherance of the interests of justice and the 7 purposes of the sentencing reform act.

8 (b) The defendant's prior unscored misdemeanor or prior unscored 9 foreign criminal history results in a presumptive sentence that is 10 clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as 11 expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

12 (c) The defendant has committed multiple current offenses and the 13 defendant's high offender score results in some of the current offenses 14 going unpunished.

15 (d) The failure to consider the defendant's prior criminal history
16 which was omitted from the offender score calculation pursuant to RCW
17 9.94A.525 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too
18 lenient.

19 (3) Aggravating Circumstances - Considered by a Jury -Imposed by 20 the Court

21 Except for circumstances listed in subsection (2) of this section, 22 the following circumstances are an exclusive list of factors that can 23 support a sentence above the standard range. Such facts should be 24 determined by procedures specified in RCW 9.94A.537.

25 (a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current 26 offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

27 (b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the 28 current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance.

29 (c) The current offense was a violent offense, and the defendant
30 knew that the victim of the current offense was pregnant.

31 (d) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of 32 offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following 33 factors:

34 (i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple 35 incidents per victim;

36 (ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss
37 substantially greater than typical for the offense;

1 (iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication
2 or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time; or

3 (iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence,
4 or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current 5 offense.

6 (e) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform
7 Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to 8 trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the 9 typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of 10 the following may identify a current offense as a major VUCSA:

11 (i) The current offense involved at least three separate 12 transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or 13 possessed with intent to do so;

14 (ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or 15 transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger 16 than for personal use;

17 (iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled
18 substances for use by other parties;

19 (iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender
20 to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy;

21 (v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or 22 planning, occurred over a lengthy period of time, or involved a broad 23 geographic area of disbursement; or

24 (vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate 25 the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, 26 confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or 27 other medical professional).

28 (f) The current offense included a finding of sexual motivation
29 pursuant to RCW 9.94A.835.

30 (g) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of sexual abuse of 31 the same victim under the age of eighteen years manifested by multiple 32 incidents over a prolonged period of time.

33 (h) The current offense involved domestic violence, as defined in 34 RCW 10.99.020, and one or more of the following was present:

35 (i) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of psychological, 36 physical, or sexual abuse of the victim manifested by multiple
37 incidents over a prolonged period of time;

1 (ii) The offense occurred within sight or sound of the victim's or 2 the offender's minor children under the age of eighteen years; or

3 (iii) The offender's conduct during the commission of the current 4 offense manifested deliberate cruelty or intimidation of the victim.

5 (i) The offense resulted in the pregnancy of a child victim of 6 rape.

7 (j) The defendant knew that the victim of the current offense was 8 a youth who was not residing with a legal custodian and the defendant 9 established or promoted the relationship for the primary purpose of 10 victimization.

11 (k) The offense was committed with the intent to obstruct or impair 12 human or animal health care or agricultural or forestry research or 13 commercial production.

14 (l) The current offense is trafficking in the first degree or 15 trafficking in the second degree and any victim was a minor at the time 16 of the offense.

17 (m) The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or 18 planning.

19 (n) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or 20 fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current 21 offense.

22 (o) The defendant committed a current sex offense, has a history of 23 sex offenses, and is not amenable to treatment.

24 (p) The offense involved an invasion of the victim's privacy.

25 (q) The defendant demonstrated or displayed an egregious lack of 26 remorse.

27 (r) The offense involved a destructive and foreseeable impact on 28 persons other than the victim.

29 (s) The defendant committed the offense to obtain or maintain his 30 or her membership or to advance his or her position in the hierarchy of 31 an organization, association, or identifiable group.

32 (t) The defendant committed the current offense shortly after being 33 released from incarceration.

34 (u) The current offense is a burglary and the victim of the 35 burglary was present in the building or residence when the crime was 36 committed.

37 (v) The offense was committed against a law enforcement officer who 38 was performing his or her official duties at the time of the offense,

1 the offender knew that the victim was a law enforcement officer, and 2 the victim's status as a law enforcement officer is not an element of 3 the offense.

4 (w) The defendant committed the offense against a victim who was 5 acting as a good samaritan.

6 (x) The defendant committed the offense against a public official 7 or officer of the court in retaliation of the public official's
8 performance of his or her duty to the criminal justice system.

9 (y) The victim's injuries substantially exceed the level of bodily
10 harm necessary to satisfy the elements of the offense. This aggravator 11 is not an exception to RCW 9.94A.530(2).
