1 AN ACT Relating to a model policy for disclosure of sex offender
2 information; amending RCW 4.24.5501; and creating a new section.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 4.24.5501 and 1997 c 364 s 6 are each amended to read
5 as follows:

6 (1) (~~By December 1, 1997~~) When funded, the Washington association
7 of sheriffs and police chiefs shall convene a sex offender model policy 8 work group to develop a model policy for law enforcement agencies (to 9 follow when they disclose information about sex offenders to the public 10 under RCW 4.24.550. The model policy shall be designed to further the 11 objectives of providing adequate notice to the community concerning sex 12 offenders who are or will be residing in the community and of assisting 13 community members in developing constructive plans to prepare
14 themselves and their children for residing near released sex
15 offenders)) and other criminal justice personnel. The model policy
16 shall provide guidelines for sex offender registration, community
17 notification, and strategies for sex offender management.

18 (2) In developing the policy, the association shall consult with 19 representatives of the following agencies and professions: (a) The

1 department of corrections; (b) the department of social and health
2 services; (c) the indeterminate sentence review board; (d) the 3 Washington state council of police officers; (e) local correctional 4 agencies; (f) the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys; (g)
5 the Washington public defender association; (h) the Washington
6 association for the treatment of sexual abusers; (i) the office of the 7 superintendent of public instruction; (j) the criminal justice training
8 commission; (k) the Washington association of criminal defense lawyers;
9 (l) the association of Washington cities; (m) the Washington coalition 10 of sexual assault programs; and ((+i)) (n) victim advocates.

11 The sex offender model policy work group, once convened, shall 12 first conduct a series of community meetings around the state to assess 13 the practices and needs of communities, identify best practices on sex
14 offender registration, community notification, and strategies for sex 15 offender management. Once the sex offender model policy work group has 16 received input from stakeholders on a final draft of the model policy,
17 the policy shall be presented to the Washington association of sheriffs 18 and police chiefs for adoption or rejection. Following the adoption of 19 a model policy, the sex offender model policy work group shall conduct 20 a series of meetings around the state with local law enforcement
21 agencies and other criminal justice personnel to review the model
22 policy and conduct training as needed. The sex offender model policy
23 work group shall then be dissolved, and, when funded, the Washington 24 association of sheriffs and police chiefs shall be responsible for the 25 continued promotion of the model policy, including annual or biennial 26 regional workshops with local law enforcement agencies and other
27 criminal justice personnel to encourage sex offender registration,
28 community notification, and strategies for sex offender management 29 policies and practices that best fit the needs, characteristics, and 30 risks of each community.

31 (3) The model policy shall, at a minimum, include recommendations
32 to address the following issues: (a) Procedures for local agencies or 33 officials to accomplish the notifications required under RCW
34 4.24.550((+8)) (10), including the identification of best practices 35 for community notification, as they relate to the specific needs and 36 characteristics to each community and the risk posed to that community;
37 (b) contents and form of community notification documents, including 38 procedures for ensuring the accuracy of factual information contained

1 in the notification documents, and ways of protecting the privacy of 2 victims of the offenders' crimes; (c) methods of distributing community
3 notification documents, including distribution to schools; (d) methods 4 of providing follow-up notifications to community residents at 5 specified intervals and of disclosing information about offenders to 6 law enforcement agencies in other jurisdictions if necessary to protect 7 the public; (e) methods of educating community residents at public
8 meetings on how they can use the information in the notification
9 document in a reasonable manner to enhance their individual and 10 collective safety; (f) procedures for educating community members 11 regarding the right of sex offenders not to be the subject of 12 harassment or criminal acts as a result of the notification process;
13 ~~((and))~~ (g) procedures and documents for local law enforcement agencies 14 to provide appropriate notification when a sex offender risk level is 15 reclassified, including strategies to monitor the reclassification of 16 sex offender risk levels by local law enforcement agencies; (h)
17 formulas and instructions on standard sex offender risk assessment
18 instruments; (i) strategies for sex offender management; and (j) other 19 matters the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs deems 20 necessary ~~((to ensure the effective and fair administration of RCW~~ 21 ~~4.24.550))~~ as it relates to sex offender registration, community
22 notification, and management.

23 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. If specific funding for the purposes of this 24 act, referencing this act by bill or chapter number, is not provided by 25 June 30, 2006, in the supplemental omnibus appropriations act, this act 26 is null and void.
