

HB 1876 - DIGEST

(SUBSTITUTED FOR - SEE 1ST SUB)

Finds that the state has a compelling interest in ensuring that those who cast a ballot understand the nature and effect of voting is an individual decision, and that any restriction of voting rights imposed through guardianship proceedings should be narrowly tailored to meet this compelling interest.