

HB 1912 - DIGEST

Declares that the determination of a worker's wages shall not include wages for hours worked in excess of forty hours for any week unless the worker demonstrates a pattern of work in excess of forty hours per week for the same employer in the three months immediately preceding the injury.