

HB 2055 - DIGEST

Declares that notwithstanding any other provision of Title 51 RCW, construction work performed by any natural person under contract is employment included within the mandatory coverage of this title, and the person performing the construction work shall be deemed to be a worker while performing this work.