

HB 2480 - DIGEST

Requires all high schools in the state to include in their health and fitness curriculum instruction in cardiopulmonary resuscitation based on up-to-date instructional methods and materials. A high school may collaborate with local agencies such as police or fire departments or community organizations such as the Red Cross to offer the instruction.