

HB 2920 - DIGEST

Requires that persons being considered for state employment in positions that allow access to a resident's personally identifying information must successfully pass a criminal background check before start of employment.