

HB 3186-S.E - DIGEST

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 2/13/06)

Provides that, the prosecuting attorney, upon request by the juvenile court probation officer, may move the court to modify the terms of the order of the disposition, whether or not the respondent has violated any terms of the order of disposition. The court may modify the order of disposition for good cause shown, so long as the modification does not result in any increased sanction or penalty. In determining whether good cause exists, the court shall consider the best interests of the respondent, the victim, and the community.
